

TALKING TIMES

Final Express - Flemington 03.07.04 - Racing on a dead track in a 3YO open class race this 3yo colt ran out a very narrow winner over Palio Archway in a better than par time and it indicates that he could improve on this initial city win quite soon. Lightly raced improver.

Gladiada – Flemington 03.07.04 – One would be hard to please if not impressed by this talented 4yo here winning by 2.3 lengths when not pressed to the line but still bettering par and taking his record to six wins from his last eight starts. Very genuine and worth following.

Our Lindyn Boy - Eagle Farm 30.06.04 - The Alan Bailey stable believes this galloper is capable of winning a good race, possibly this preparation, and he made a good impression here in this class 4 race, running a smart adjusted time. Genuine and can improve.

Penola - Eagle Farm 30.06.04 - This 4yo King Ivor gelding is holding his good form very well this preparation and he was right on-song when winning a welter (open class) race in a smart adjusted time and by a comfortable 1.3 lengths. Seems very likely to win again.

Pontifex - Hawkesbury 01.07.04 – Resuming from a spell of 175 days this Tim Martin trained 4yo King Of Kings gelding made it 4 wins from 8 starts when a solid winner in a 4Y+CL3 race over 1000m and in the process ran a fast adjusted time. Ready for a city assignment.

Pyrenees Prince - Hawkesbury 01.07.04 - This Gai Waterhouse trained 3yo Peintre Celebre gelding made it 2 wins from 2 starts when an easy 1.8 lengths winner in a class 1 race over 1400m and in the process ran a fast adjusted time. City special conditions midweek suits.

Verb - Rosehill 03.07.04 - This 4yo Zabeel gelding trained by Jack Denham is a pretty honest performer with a record of 4 wins from 17 starts and in winning this he not only bettered par but showed he is well up to winning an off season open class staying race. Follow up.

Yiasou Sydney - Kembla Grange 03.07.04 - Racing on a good track and in an 4Y+CL3 class race this 4yo gelding ran out a clear cut 3 lengths winner in a better than par time and it indicates that he could improve on previous city form quite soon. Lightly raced improver.
